

KEEPING A COMMUNITY EXCITED

Exodus 35-39

Introduction

- 1 Nothing matches the excitement of a community wholly devoted to the Lord
- 2 Nothing matches the excitement of a community that makes no distinctions in what is being done for the Lord
- 3 Nothing matches the excitement of a community that recognizes that different situations require the abilities of certain people for a period of time
- 4 Nothing can match the excitement of a community that holds back nothing from the Lord and yet needs to be held back

Conclusion

- ♦ If an “enthusiasm gap” exists among the staff and volunteers of SYFC, what does such a gap look like?
- ♦ What should we in the family of SYFC/ministry be excited about? What can be done to bring about excitement in our family of SYFC/ministry?
- ♦ Do you tend to hold back rather than be held back in what you do?
