Lessons from Joshua as a leader:

- A leader knows his rightful place in God's scheme of things (v.1-13)

- A leader demonstrates clear convictions (v.14-24)

- A leader sets up structures to assist those he leads (v.25-28)

Reflection Questions:

- How can I guard myself against focusing on achievements?
- Am I modelling the way for those after me?
- What would you want those that follow after you remember you for?
